

In Appreciation

We are happy to confirm a unanimous vote on February 25, 1980, by the Board of Directors of American Broadcasting Companies, Inc., to commend the extraordinary efforts of and your ABC colleagues in the broadcasting of the Thirteenth Winter Olympic Games at Lake Placid, New York, February 12-24, 1980. The broadcast excellence which you achieved was seen and admired by millions of people around the world, and has brought honor and prestige to the American Broadcasting Company.

Peggy Hughes

We thank you and salute you.
